Itinerary:

We start our Palma tour in the heart of the 'Palma Old City', the Gothic Quarter, which dates back to the Roman times. From the meeting point, walking along the ancient renaissance city walls and seeing the remains of Palma's early settlement, as the Almudaina fortress from the Arab period as well as medieval buildings and sights in the lesser-known Jewish Quarter. Admire the beautiful Cathedral la Seu, considered a masterpiece of gothic period and an ultimate Palma sightseeing experience, let's talk here about the merger and dialogue of artistic tendencies from different periods. Stroll through the narrow streets of the Casco Antic where nobility and merchants once lived together in this neighborhood and joined forces in the construction of this impressive building.

We will continue our Palma walking tour to Morey Street where large palaces sitting right next to top museums like the Museo Mallorca. Dali private collection in a lovely building next to la Portella. . The Arab Baths Just next door. The area is renowned for its great traditional places .There are some local bars. Test a chocolate with ensaimada in a shop that opens business back to 1877and was the first shop preparing almond ice cream. You'll still find the original coffee and cuartos. You're likely to find yourself going back to a point out of time.
